Overall Achievement and Impact

Please take this opportunity to celebrate personal achievements and accomplishments for the year. What stands out? Consider both the impact on the business (results) and how this was delivered (behaviors).

Employee's overall comments

Please see below for first half 2022 comments. In the second half of the year we continued to deliver. We have finally been able to deliver a more automated IFRS4 Life P&L for both Core and Non-Core, helped the Life team with IFRS17 reporting, deployed the new elimination process, and continued to streamline the P&C IFRS17 reporting. I am very proud of what the team achieved this year. In addition as the Social Chair I think I had a positive impact on the engagement of FAR employees. I'm looking forward to 2023 and what we can accomplish as our dual reporting requirements start to wane.

Manager's overall comments

Claus has had an incredible year. I truly enjoy working and collaborating with Claus. He is a team player by always being ready to support across the team with a positive attitude. Claus is very well rounded and brings a great balance to the team. Not only does he have the technical skills around automation, but he also is familiar w/ the financial statements and the mechanics around how balances are generated (i.e., expense/investment income allocations, etc.). In addition, Claus by far leads the pack in organizing social and charitable events for the team. His leadership, dedication and passion are much appreciated and felt across the FAR organization. FAR would not be the same without Claus. Thanks for being you!

Employee's overall comments

I think this has been a successful first half of the year. At the beginning of the year, we focused on incorporating the new CIID structures and Plans into our management reporting. As the year progressed EPM and Insightz submissions as well as the continued build-out of IFRS17 reporting took over. We were also instrumental in helping deliver some projects such as Clearinghouse Phase 2, ZRS Canada, and E&S reporting without having to do a CIID re-org. My team's responsibilities have increased this year as we have taken on Life management reporting, some DAC reporting responsibilities, as well as DAC Recs without any adds to staff. We have also continued to make progress on the Alteryx business case as we have been able to automate the ZGL reporting, bring the WAQS calculation into Alteryx, and make the report card template available within the tool. We are currently working on delivering the Elimination process to fully align our reporting with Group's consolidation process and will focus on IFRS17 reporting (EPM and local Management reporting alignment). I have also personally grown as a manager this year by taking on the Social Committee chair for FAR and organizing the Cooking for Ukraine fundraiser. I have also been able to improve my manager feedback scores and incorporate my team's feedback.

Claus' success for this objective is evidenced in his long list of achievements. Claus, along with the entire team, had an extraordinarily busy year with the full parallel run. It's been busy, challenging and stressful and will continue into 2023 until we stop reporting under IFRS 4. The entire team has been successful as a result of a lot of hard work and collaboration across the team. I could not ask for better team, both technically and personality wise. The positive, can-do attitudes go a long way in contributing to the success of the entire team. Claus' performance specifically stood out in this objective as a result of his contributions in the following areas:

- automation of Life P&L's, both Core and Noncore
- support with IFRS 17 close decks and thought leadership around how to present results to management
- automation of the elimination process, including alignment with Group elimination process

These were all big initiatives this year, along with the numerous required BAU deliverables! Claus has really helped lead the way to perform as a fully integrated team, for both P&C and Life. Our Financial Reporting processes are much more aligned and consistent between P&C and Life after the progress made this year. One of my main objectives when taking my role was to ensure we streamline and find efficiencies across P&C and Life. The efficiency is important, but, even more importantly, I wanted the Life team to feel more integrated into the overall ZNA process and not like they were 'on an island' not supported. Big thanks to Claus for ALL of his contributions this year!

Claus Hoerandner Comments

Exceptional Activities: Adopt and deliver IFRS 17 FIP filings for the opening balance sheet and monthly and quarterly closes for P&C and Life in parallel with the IFRS 4 closes for 2022. This will require a significant and one-time unusual work effort in 2022 for many areas of FAR. Accelerate the process of recording loss reserves, taxes and running WAQs by Group Re to collectively find 1 day of time savings in the quarterly close process. Continue efforts to reconcile and resolve old outstanding reconciling items related to activity prior to 2022.

I agree with Claus' self-assessment. As Claus and I have discussed in our quarterly Career Conversations, he has embraced what it means to be a good manager and, ultimately, a great leader. It is evident that his team respects him and truly enjoys working with him. His manager feedback surveys clearly communicate this. Claus is a new manager, but the new challenge has come naturally to him, probably due to his passion and commitment. As mentioned above, Claus leads the way in organizing team outings. He truly cares and wants to provide opportunities for individuals to connect in different ways, including outside of work on a more personal level. I cannot emphasize enough what an impact Claus has on the FAR organization.

Claus Hoerandner Comments

I believe I have excelled in this space as I have focused on improving my managerial skills in year 2 since my promotion. My feedback scores have continued to improve, and I have stood up the Social Committee which has organized numerous events in 2022. I have also been able to organize a team outing and believe team morale has continued to improve. This can be seen by the high work output from my team. I also had pointed development discussions with each of my team members which have led to Abby being promoted and moving to a new team, Jenny being promoted in-role, Karen seeking new opportunities that align better with her background and desires, and Sol taking personal development classes for the first time in her career. I'm proud of how the team has developed over the last year and how we have contributed to making FAR a more engaging place to work.
